

A Service for Marriage

Entry: Song - ??

Welcome and Introduction

1. We have come together in the sight of God for the joining in marriage of this man ... and this woman ...

Our Lord Jesus Christ said of marriage that "From the beginning of creation God made them male and female. " For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one." So they are no longer two but one. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder"

Marriage is the symbol of God's unending love for his people, and of the union between Christ and his Church. So Saint Paul teaches that the husband must love his wife as Christ loved the Church, and that the wife must give due honour to her husband.

Marriage should be honoured by all, and is not to be entered into lightly or carelessly, but with reverent and serious respect for those purposes for which it was instituted by God.

Marriage is a gift from God for the well-being of mankind, and for the proper expression of natural instincts and affections with which he has endowed us.

It is a life long union in which a man and a woman are called so to give themselves in body, mind and spirit, and so to respond, that from their union will grow a deepening knowledge and love of each other. In the joys and sorrows of life, in prosperity and adversity, they share their companionship, faithfulness and strength.

In marriage a new family is established in accordance with God's purpose, so that children may be born and nurtured in secure and loving care, for their well-being and instruction, and for the good order of society, to the glory of God.

..... and .... have now come here to be joined in this holy union to which God has led them. They seek his blessing on their life together, that they may fulfil his purpose for them; and they ask us to support them in this prayer. If any person here can show why they may not lawfully be joined in marriage he should speak now, or hereafter remain in silence.

I charge you both, as you will answer before God, that if either of you know any reason why you may not lawfully be joined together in matrimony, you now confess it. For be assured that those who marry otherwise than God's word allows are not joined together by God, neither is their matrimony lawful in his sight.

The Consents

2. The Minister says to the man

....., will you take ..... to be your wife, to live together according to God's law?

Will you give her the honour due to her as your wife and, forsaking all others, love and protect her, as long as you both shall live?

The man answers I will

3. The Minister says to the woman

....., will you take ..... to be your husband, to live together according to God's law?

Will you give him the honour due to him as your husband and, forsaking all others, love and protect him, as long as you both shall live?

The woman answers I will

4. The Minister asks...

Who brings this woman to be married to this man?

The woman's father ..... answers I do

5. The Minister causes the man to take the woman's right hand.

The Minister together with all the people says

God our Father, in your great love for mankind you have given us the gift of marriage; so bless these two persons as they pledge their lives to each other, that their love may evermore grow to be the true reflection of your love for us all; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Vows

6. The man, holding the woman's right hand in his says

I ....., in the presence of God,
take you ..... to be my wife;
To have and to hold
from this day forward,
for better for worse,
for richer for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish,
as long as we both shall live.
This is my solemn vow and promise.

7. The woman, taking the man's right hand in hers says

I ....., in the presence of God,
take you ..... to be my husband;
To have and to hold
from this day forward,
for better for worse,
for richer for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish,
as long as we both shall live.
This is my solemn vow and promise.

8. The Minister receives the wedding ring(s), and then says

Grant, Lord, that this ring may be a token and a constant sign of the pledge of love and faithfulness which these two persons make to each other; through Christ our Lord.
All say Amen

9. The man places the ring on the ring-finger of the woman and holding it there says

....., with this ring I wed you;
With all that I am and all that I have I honour you;
In the name of God. Amen.

10. Before they loose hands the woman may respond

....., I receive this ring in token of our marriage.
May God enable us to grow in love together.

11. If the woman gives a ring to the man, this procedure is to be repeated appropriately.

12. The Minister joins their right hands together and says

Those whom God has joined together let not man put asunder.

13. Before God and in the presence of us all, by solemn consent and promise, by the giving and receiving of a ring, and by the joining of hands, ..... and ..... have now accepted each other in marriage.

In the name of God, I declare them to be husband and wife.

14. The Minister then addresses the husband and wife, saying

God the Father enrich you with his grace,
God the Son make you holy in his love,
God the Holy Spirit strengthen you with his joy.
The Lord bless you and keep you in eternal life. Amen.
Blessed be the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; one God, to be praised for ever.

16. The Talk

17. Prayers The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
Now and forever. Amen.

18. The Minister continues

Almighty Father, giver of life and love, look in favour on all who are made one in marriage, and especially on ..... and ..... as they enter into their new life together. In your love deepen their love; strengthen their wills to keep the promises they have made; that they may live to your glory and to the good of mankind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Conclusion

20. The Minister and congregation say

Almighty God, Lord of the universe,
All love, strength, and understanding comes from you;
So direct and govern us in body and soul that we may strive to live according to your word and to do everything that is agreeable to your will: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.
