1 Timothy 1:1-20 – Fight The Good Fight

Q. What do you think are the marks of a genuine Christian and why?

Read verses 1-7 and as you read, circle the words you think are important. (Discuss your reasons afterwards).

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope,² To Timothy my true son in the faith: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³ As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that you may command certain men not to teach false doctrines any longer⁴ nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies. These promote controversies rather than God's work-- which is by faith.
⁵ The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. ⁶ Some have wandered away from these and turned to meaningless talk. ⁷ They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm.

Q. Who is this letter directed to and what is the instruction that Paul gives this person? (v1-5)

Q. What is the result of this kind of teaching and contrast this to someone who teaches from a sincere faith? (v3-5)

The emphasis of the opening chapter of this pastoral letter to Timothy is on teaching. Paul instructs his disciple to refute those who use the gift of teaching as a means to their end, which when applied in the area of myths and genealogies only promote speculation. People like this are generally motivated by a desire for their own glory, to be noticed or held in high esteem. They use the law of God for the wrong reasons yet sincere faith, Paul says, issues' from a pure heart' and its goal is love. A definite contrast has been established between the true and false teacher.

Read verses 8-11

⁸ We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. ⁹ We also know that law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious; for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers,¹⁰ for adulterers and perverts, for slave traders and liars and perjurers-- and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine¹¹ that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.

Q. What do these verses tell us the law is good for? (Compare this with Romans 3:19-20).

Q. If this is true, then what do we do with the ten commandments? Aren't they God's law which is to be obeyed?

Paul reminds Timothy that the law was never there to use as a way to earn merit with God as we can never fully obey the law. Further to this, James writes in 2:10 that if we break just one part of the law we have failed to obey it. The law in essence was to raise an awareness in our consciences of the reality of sin in our lives and that we need someone to fix our sin before God. Paul will now testify to Timothy how his sinful life was turned around and who it was who fixed this mess he was in before God.

Read verses 12-17

¹² I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me faithful, appointing me to his service. ¹³ Even though I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent man, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and unbelief. ¹⁴ The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵ Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners-- of whom I am the worst. ¹⁶ But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his unlimited patience as an example for those who would believe on him and receive eternal life. ¹⁷

Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Q. What did this law of God reveal to Paul about his condition previously? (v13)

Q. Instead of God's judgment, what was poured out on him instead?

Q. How did God save Paul? (v15)

Q. What is the reason why God showed this mercy to Paul? (v16)

Q. How does Paul respond to this grace in verse 17? _____

Paul recognizes that the mercy God shows him will in the end benefit those who are to come to believe in Jesus (v16). The amazing news of how God makes him acceptable through Jesus, transforms his life which then becomes the living testimony or a sign post which plays a part in the salvation of others as well.

Q. Did you see your life as a living testimony which is to be used for the salvation of others who will come to trust in Jesus? _____

Q. In terms of what we've learnt about true and false teachers, what do you think others ought to see in the followers of Jesus, which testifies to His presence in our lives?

Read verses 18-20

¹⁸ Timothy, my son, I give you this instruction in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by following them you may fight the good fight, ¹⁹ holding on to faith and a good conscience. Some have rejected these and so have shipwrecked their faith. ²⁰ Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

Q Why do you think Paul calls this sincere living from a pure heart a fight?

Prayer- Spend some time giving thanks to God for the way he has poured his mercy upon us and pray about some ways we can continue to fight the good fight of Love.
