Looking at Ch 2:1- 4

8. What do you think was the message declared by angels?

9. What was the message declared first by the Lord in v3?

10. What is the first warning then to readers? (v3)

The writer has gone to great lengths in this first chapter, to remind the readers of the Old Testament scripture which holds the son of God in much higher esteem than the angels. The force of the argument is that if their message from old brought about very real retribution, how much would the message of God's very own son.

At times we can also loose sight of the power of Jesus over our lives and give way to other things over our lives.

11. Spend a few moments and discuss what things or people can be given a higher place in our lives than Jesus?

12. Spend some time praying about this.
